

Existing Conditions

Lack of bicycle lanes discourages appropriate vehicular movements and reduces awareness

Lack of protection for pedestrians discourages them from walking along Markham Street.

Wide right-of-way and the lack of sidewalks discourage pedestrian activity.

Lack of sidewalks and unmaintained curb cuts disconnect the neighborhood.

Frequent curb cuts present numerous conflict moments.

Open stormwater drainage is a disamenity to the pedestrian experience

Wide travel lanes encourage encourages high traffic speeds

Too many obstacles inhibits pedestrian movement.

Photomorph Visioning of Markham Street

Plan

Street Cross Sections

